Johanna Beville provided the following updates:

- Healthy Teens Coalition of Manatee County and its Teen health Educators were recognized by the Board of County Commissioners for their work to address teen pregnancy prevention and associated health problems. The Board of County Commissioners proclaimed that May 2021 shall be known, designated, and set aside as Teen Pregnancy Prevention Month in Manatee County, Florida.

Old/New Business

Xtavia thanked all the agencies and programs who applied and voiced her appreciation for the many programs focusing on reading. Xtavia shared she has received verbal reports of improvement on what these programs are doing and that there are children reading at advanced levels as a result of program efforts.

Public Comment

Agencies who verbally provided a public comment during the meeting were:

(In Person): Kelly Fetch, Katrina Bellemore (Virtually): Connie Keener, Tari Allen, and Stacey Shafer

In Person:

- Kelly Fetch, Salvation Army: Apologized for missing last week's meeting and wanted to provide the CSAB Members with the opportunity to ask any additional questions. There were none. Thanked the CSAB Members.
- Katrina Bellemore, Parenting Matters: Thanked the Board for the kind comments. Addressed the program grouping that the CSAB had recommended in previous years being the reasoning behind how they applied for funding this year. Thanked the CSAB Members for their time and dedication to review all the applications.

Virtual:

- Connie Kenner, Manatee County Sheriff's Office for Child Protection: Spoke on the in-home diversion program and their pleasure at the assessments that the Safe Children's Coalition is conducting and the improvement from previous agency that was facilitating the program. Thanked the program and the CSAB Members for their ongoing work and applauded all.
- Tari Allen, Centerstone Trauma Services Manager: Spoke on Centerstone's Certified Rape Crisis Center for Manatee County and provided information on all the different services the program provides, and in what capacity, throughout the recovery process. Spoke on the application for funding and reviewed the results that are served with the funding.
- Stacey Shafer, Safe Children's Coalition: Thanked CSAB Members for their consideration for the upcoming funding and spoke of her appreciation for the emergency funding that was previously granted by the CSAB Members for the diversion program. Provided an update on serving 600 children and collaboration with Law Enforcement as a result.
